

LAMENT FROM HEAVEN©

Here I am, thank God

I guess genealogy kept me too busy to listen to Satan.

Now what will become of all the family research I did?

After spending many years and oodles of money.

I am gone

Gone, and everything is still in the computer.

What will happen to it?

Can someone else take it and put it together

in a useable way to be interesting to our many descendants?

Will they understand my notes
and what I wanted to achieve?

Oh, why didn't I put it together sooner

Why did I have to get

One more piece of information

Before I started the family history?

What will become of all that work?

Waited to long
